4. General School Update – Dr. Edwards

- Dr. Edwards expressed a big thank you to everyone for making this year such a success
- The latest school tour had 50 attendees, some of which are already enrolled
- Speed tables are going in now, playground expected to be installed in July
- State of School presentations will be scheduled for August and January, more information to be coming soon
 - Opportunity for PTO and SAC to introduce themselves and encourage new members
- Leman will be enhancing their bullying prevention program with the aid of the safety grant. It will build on what already exists.
- Back to school nights are being planned. Scheduling needs to consider indoor and outdoor space (parking).
 - It was suggested that for the middle school back to school nights, a presentation be made to all parents that introduces all middle school teachers and explains middle school expectations.
- Currently Leman has 90% staff retention. It was recommended that this be advertised

5. Review SAC Survey Reporting – Denise Pfeffer

- Royal Review – article went out in last Royal Review
- Staff Presentation – presented results at last staff meeting
- Leman Board Presentation in July. Will bring up lunch improvement
- Over the summer track survey responses over last 3 years
